

Kathleen Britt joined WFA in February, 2018. In her first year on the job, she was not only a trustee, but also spent several months working to set up Brite Nites, the major fundraiser for WFA. She continued being an integral part of Brite Nites and beginning in 2020 became the chairwoman for the entire event.

Kat is a chorus director for Jersey Harmony Chorus, a women's a cappella group in Princeton, NJ. As director, her responsibilities include selecting all music for the chorus, including songs for competition. She leads all rehearsals and directs full chorus and large ensemble performances.

Jersey Harmony is part of a parent organization called Sweet Adelines - an international organization specializing in four part harmony singing. Kat joined Sweet Adelines in 1996 as a singer and dancer in a chorus, as well as singing her part in a quartet. From 1996 through the present Kat has held several positions on the board of her local chorus, including Performance Chair. After becoming the director of Jersey Harmony in 2011, she also held the position of Director's Coordinator on the Regional Management Team. Kat became a Sweet Adelines Certified Director in 2013.

She has been the Assistant Director and Section Leader in four choruses, and is currently the Assistant Director in Harmony Celebration Chorus, helping them earn a chance to compete at the International Competition. Kat is a barbershop vocal coach.

Kat is a prior employee of Karen's Dollhouse Shop in Basking Ridge, NJ. She is an avid dollhouse collector and artisan, creating her own miniatures.

Kat has an extensive flower garden at her home and has increased her vegetable production over the last few years. Her interests include singing, gardening, cross-stitch, rug hooking, painting, and creating miniatures. She holds a BA in English Literature from Drew University
